We have made a further review of opportunities for your employment with us since receiving your formal application papers. However, the situation has not changed substantially since your interview with [redacted] Most of our current recruitment is to obtain junior officers and there appears to be no position immediately available which would accommodate your employment.

25X1

Your interest in us is appreciated. We shall be glad to hold your application papers for reconsideration as our needs change and, if an opening of potential interest should develop, shall get in touch with you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Gordon M. Stewart
